

Milo Baughman Large Chrome & Glass Etagere Shelving Unit

UNITED STATES, Circa 1970s

Multi-tiered etagere attributed to Milo Baughman for the Design Institute of America. Chrome frame with five shelves and beautiful Greek Key type foot.

Beautiful Vintage Condition.

SPECIFICATIONS

Designer:	Milo Baughman
Manufacturer:	Design Institute of America
Origin:	United States
Date:	1970s
Materials	Chrome & Glass
Color:	Silver & Clear Glass
Dimensions	16" Deep x 42" Wide x 79.25" High
Condition	Very Good Vintage Condition. Wear consistent with age and use.

PROVENANCE

Milo Baughman (1923-2003) was one of the most influential American Furniture Designers of the postwar period and a major figure in establishing a distinctly American Form of Modernism.

He helped to make modernism approachable and available to the American Public.

Milo Baughman did receive the American Society of Furniture Designers' Distinguished Designer Award in 1987.

FEATURES

- Chrome Channel Frame
- Mondrian asymmetrical design in layout
- Greek Key Foot Design
- Clear Glass Shelves

Reference	ST-SUMI0060
Category:	Storage

Price $3,250